

CROMER CARNIVAL LIMERICKS

There once was a crab called Fred
Lived in Cromer upon the seabed
He loved summer terms Kings Lynn
When the kids fed him worms
But in the Winter he never was fed.

There was a young lady from Cromer
T'was said she was once a beach comber
She now writes the quiz
Twice a year she's a whizz Vale of Glamorgan
That wonderful lady from Cromer

No Carnival this year,
Or fireworks on the pier,
Use anti bac gel Sheringham
Wear a mask as well,
Stay safe and you've nothing to fear

There is a town called Cromer,
Whose Carnival was off because of corona
Though it was hard to bare,
It will be back next year Cromer
And to the Red Arrows we'll give A big cheer

There was a small town called Cromer
Where life was relatively slower
Until Carnival week. Cromer
When things reached there, peak,
And the locals wished it was over

There was a young man from Cromer
Who admitted he was a roamer
He couldn't stay still East Hunsbury
And agreed he never will Northampton
This hyper young man from Cromer,

Walk on the prom
Swim in the sea
Play in the park Cromer
All these are free

Cromer's entitled to boast
It's gem of the Norfolk Coast
If it's sea, sand- laughter Derbyshire
And fun that you're after
It's the place that you long for the most

If you come down to Cromer Pier
Have a Cromer crab, breathe pure air
See wonderful shows
Feel the sand in your toes. Harleston Norfolk
You'll leave without a care

The Pier, poppies, sand and sea
There is nowhere else I would rather be,
Carnival day and the parade of fun Sittingbourne,
Now this quiz and limerick is done Kent

There was a young lady from Cromer
Who was always a bit of a loner
She went to the pier Bacton
And had too many beers
And fell for a young man called Homer

There once was a Coastguard from Cromer
That got called out to save a beachcomber
As he pulled the guy in
He got soaked to the skin Trimingham
And ended up catching pneumonia

Cromer was where we came to stay
For our family holiday
We did the Carnival "Find the Link" Cambridge
Up quick just a blink
Now we wait for our prize to come our way.

This year they all come to Cromer
Because of the virus Corona Bacton
And now they don't want to Go homer

Bagott goats on the slopes
Henry Blogg, fishing boats
Crabs and seals Lingwood
Enjoy them all Cromer appeals

There was a young lady from Cromer
Who loves quizzes about Greeks & Homer
But at a quiz in Felbrigg
She failed to score big Benfleet Essex
And her team did quickly disown her

The town of Cromer know not to boast
Serves the finest crabs and best Sunday roast
With its Carnival each year
And its beautiful pier Aylsham
This place is truly the gem of the Norfolk Coast

There was a young lady from Cromer
Who's bike had a shiny new chrome
She rode down to the pier
Cause she fancied a beer Cromer
But fell at Garden Street, Cromer

In the audience at the Cromer Pier Show
Sat a girl with her eyes all a flow
She laughed and she cheered Cromer
As the cast all appeared
Such great entertainment you know

There was an old lady called Paloma
Who went on a day trip to Cromer
She went to the pier
And drank too much beer Cromer
And ended up on the beach in a coma

No Bonny Baby or Carnival Queen

CROMER CARNIVAL LIMERICKS

- No parade this year cause of Covid 19
But never fear
It will be back next year
Bigger & better than its ever been
Norwich
- There was a young man called Homer
Who went on a day trip to Cromer
He enjoyed it a lot
This beautiful spot
So he married the local beachcomber
Cromer
- There was a young lady from the coast
Who liked Cromer Crab with her toast
She ate so much CRUSTACEAN
She resembled its relation
So now her favourite breakfast is a roast.
Aylsham
- There was a poet called Homer
Lazy would be a misnomer
Worked hard did the lad
An Odyssey and Iliad
Then had a great holiday in Cromer
Derbyshire
- Oh yes it's the Cromer quiz
Guaranteed to get you in a tizz
With super hard clues
That could give you the blues
If you don't complete it without a glass of fizz
Wolverhampton
- There was a young fellow from Cromer
Who recited the poems of Homer
The Iliad and Odyssey
He quoted with modesty
While changing the bag on his stoma
Lymington
- There was an old man from Cromer
Who looked like a garden groma
While out fishing one day
His wife thought he'd turned into clay,
Was an effect of her worsening glaucoma
Lymington
- Carnival shenanigans once a year
Hours spent crabbing with a cheeky pier beer
Smiles on our face
We're in our happy place
Cromer memories are the best souvenir
Leicester
- There was a young man from Cromer
Who sickened and fell into a coma
He was to have wed
But soon he was dead
So much for our young man from Cromer
Cambridge
- A day at the seaside we cheer
With crabs and a beach and a pier
Ice creams and chips
Watching falcons and ships
The reason we come year after year
Cromer
- Cromer crabs are very sad
They know their fate is rather bad
- If one nips your toe
In the pot it must go
But they're the best bl'immin' crabs to be had
Lymington
- There was a young lady called Fiona
Who was an incredible roamer
She looked at her map
To see where she's at
And ended up crabbing at Cromer
Northampton
- Cromer is lovely this time of year
I like to go for a walk on the pier
Go fishing for a crab
Get a Coastal kebab
Then to the Kings head for a beer
Sheringham
- There was a young lady from Cromer
Who unfortunately contracted corona
She coughed and she sneezed
And fell to her knees
Now the only way to contact her is to phone 'er
Luton
- Oh Cromer is the place to be
With esplanade, pier, sand and sea
But the thing I like best
Above all the rest
Is some freshly caught crab for my tea
West Midlands
- I have been up the Eiffel Tower
And I have been to the leaning tower of Pisa
But you have never lived
Until you have been on Cromer Pier
Sheffield
- There was an old lady from Cromer
Who caught crabs with her boyfriend called Homer
The crabs gave a cheer
When she fell of the pier
And landed on a grumpy beachcomber
Norwich
- Welcome to Cromer
All we ask
Please keep your distance
And wear your mask
Cromer
- There was a young man, a beachcomber
Who loved his days out in Cromer
For its sea and its sand
And its pier so grand
He thought he deserved a Diploma
Wymondham
- There was a young crab from Cromer,
Who had passed his swimming Diploma
His friends said to him
Can you teach us to swim
We will then be the fastest crabs in Cromer
Kings Lynn
- The Carnival quiz was for us
Four locals saved the fuss

CROMER CARNIVAL LIMERICKS

- Take a stroll on the pier
Clear your mind with a beer
Then we all went home on a bus
Cromer
- There was a young lady from Cromer
Whose dog was a bit of a roamer
He went off to college
To improve his knowledge
And now his got a Diploma
Bromley Kent
- It was Carnival day up in Cromer
With sun hats and sun cream all over
We saw the Red Arrows
And even red barrows
What memories we have of Cromer
Chelmsford
Essex
- There was a young lady from Cromer
Who travelled cause she was a roamer
Tales of travels so fine
She would tell us 'on line'
Just in case she had the corona
Gimingham
- Cromer has wide open skies, sand and sea,
So pack up your bags and just go see
Fishing boats, a pier, lifeboat station and theatre
With walks all around, await you there,
And soon you will know Cromer is the bestest
Place to be Buckinghamshire
- There was an old man from Cromer
A renowned local beachcomber
He went out each week
The sea's treasures to seek
But in lockdown studied the poems of Homer
Leicestershire
- There was a young man from Cromer
Who sat on the pier reading Homer
He wanted a P
So he dumped in the C
And that was the end of Homer
Aylsham
- There was a young man from Roma
Who fancied a life as a beachcomber
When the sea was not rough
He would bathe in the buff
And always loved his holiday in Cromer
Aylsham
- There was a woman called Mona
Who walked her dog daily on the beach in Cromer
They would visit the pier and have a cheeky beer
Give a wave to anyone who came near
Until she met the man she married named Homer
Trimingham
- There was a young lad lived in Cromer
Who had an old dog he called Homer
They went to the pier
Met all their chums there
And enjoyed hotdogs a coke and a burger
Hemsby
- This year Cromer will miss the most
Is the best carnival among our fair coast
- Do not shed a tear
It will be back next year
To that we can all raise a toast
Cromer
- All people know Cromer's the best
As a place to come to rest
Now even a bird
This great news has heard
And on Cromer church tower's his nest
Cromer
- There was a teenager called Tia
Who spent the day on Cromer pier
She pulled up a line
But all was not fine
As the crab nipped her on the rear
Sheringham
- A young lad from Cromer went fishing
To catch a big crab he was wishing
But the net it was bare
There was nothing in there
So he ended up fish 'n' chipping
Cromer
- There was an old woman from Cromer
Who had a powerful pungent aroma
She off smelt of crab
Sometimes salty old dab
That smelly old fish wife from Cromer
Sheringham
- There was a young man from Cromer
Actually that's a bit of a misnomer
From North Walsham he came
But snobbery was his game
So he said I am a young man from Cromer
Derbyshire
- Don't be a loner
Come to Cromer
Sit on the pier
And enjoy a beer
Before you head for homer
Southampton
- Cromer is down by the sea
Perfect place for you and me
Hurray hip hip
To Tony Shipp
And his deserved MBE
Norwich
- The town of Cromer is the best
Stands head and shoulders above the rest
From super cafes, pubs and shops
To stunning views from the cliff tops
It leaves you calm, rested and de-stressed
Cromer
- Cromer is a beautiful town,
A gem of the Norfolk Coast
A place to visit
To paddle your feet
To sunbathe until your toast!
Chelmsford Essex